The Essay:

A dedicated educator and beloved principal for many years at King Springs Elementary School, Ms. Keeney values character and lifelong learning. She opened every morning at King Springs with the following statement:

“Make good choices, do the right thing, and have a great day at King Springs.”

Tell us about a time when you had to make a tough choice or to do the right thing. How did you make that difficult decision and what did you learn from that experience? In your essay, be sure to explain how your personal values played a role in your decision making, how those values reflect your character, and how your personal approach to a growth mindset and lifelong learning has shaped you as a person.

Essay Guidelines: Attach your carefully proofread essay to this form. The essay is limited to no more than 1000 words (roughly 4 pages)
